

ARCHAEOLOGY WEEKEND

THE BIG DIG

FRIDAY 13-SUNDAY 15 MAY 2011

Ever wondered what it might be like to be an archaeologist?

As part of National Archaeology Week 2011, Sydney Harbour YHA in collaboration with Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority is offering a residential weekend experience, giving you the chance to learn more about archaeology and to immerse yourself in a hands-on excavation of a section of The Big Dig.

Prices range from $300 per person in a multi-share room to $522 per person private room with a view, and include:

- Two nights' accommodation at Sydney Harbour YHA, The Rocks
- All meals
- Welcome, orientation and movie night
- Two days of on-site excavation work (over 10 hours)
- Visits to The Rocks Discovery Museum, Sydney Observatory and Susannah Place Museum.

This weekend program is suitable for anyone 17 years and older and is a general interest course designed to appeal to anyone who has always been curious about archaeology, particularly Australian Historical Archaeology.

Places are strictly limited, and are offered by competition only. Applications to take part in the program close 28 April 2011 and the successful applicants will be advised at the end of April 2011. Conditions apply.
