

Sensational savings at Sydney Harbour YHA!

The brand new Sydney Harbour YHA is offering a three-night city break, that represents exceptional value for money, perfect for travellers on a budget who want to stay in Sydney's most sought after tourism precinct.

Sydney Harbour YHA is situated on the remnants of some of Australia's earliest European settlement. The remains of houses, pubs and laneways as well as thousands of household artefacts dating back to the First Fleet were uncovered during archaeological digs and have been incorporated into its design.

Situated in the heart of The Rocks, with panoramic rooftop views across Sydney Harbour, the purpose built YHA offers double, family and multi-share rooms all with en-suite bathrooms and some with stunning Opera House views. Guests can relax on its roof top terrace, spacious lounge and TV room. Overnight accommodation is priced from just $42.00 per night in 6 bed shared room ($37.50 for YHA members).

The ferry terminal at Circular Quay, the Sydney Opera House, BridgeClimb, the Museum of Contemporary Art and The Observatory are all within easy walking distance. The historic laneways of The Rocks itself boast plenty of cafes, restaurants and interesting shops and galleries. Visitors planning a long weekend can enjoy the popular The Rocks Weekend Market on Saturday and Sundays and Farmers Market on Fridays.

Sydney Harbour YHA is located at 110 Cumberland St, The Rocks and is a 5 minute walk from Circular Quay train station. A shuttle bus operates between Sydney Airport and Sydney Harbour YHA and must be pre-booked.
